

The Power of One

A study in one major city indicated that out of eleven million drivers on its streets, only fifty percent could read a road map. Researchers concluded that in most cases, map reading was being replaced by a reliance on navigational systems. But as you may know, even the best GPS can lead to a dead end.

Someone you know is looking for spiritual directions. They need to know the right way, but they are relying on the wrong sources. God has already given them a road map: The Bible.

Someone needs a trusted friend—like you—to show them how to read the map. Someone who will prayerfully guide them. There is power in one.

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere” (Acts 1:8 NLT).

The Power of Prayer

It's always there, but you can't see it. The airwaves are filled with billions of thoughts—words of wisdom, instructions, affirmations, and directions—bouncing off satellites orbiting thousands of miles above the earth to a receiver you can hold in your hand. The Creator is the mind behind it—and you are His receiver. What He says to you in prayer, and what you say to Him, will not only change your life, it will change the life of another. There is power in one.

*“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere”
(Acts 1:8 NLT).*

The Power of Friendship

Think of that one person who made the greatest spiritual impact on your life. What did they say? What did they do? What was it about their life? Most likely they were just living like Jesus. After dying on the Cross and rising from the grave, Jesus sent His Holy Spirit to live in and through His followers. You can be that one person who will make the greatest spiritual impact on the life of another. There is power in one.

*“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere”
(Acts 1:8 NLT).*

The Power of Invitation

You open the envelope and read: You are cordially invited . . . You WERE on the list! You wondered if you would receive the invitation. There were moments when you thought you had been left out. But you weren't. You hadn't received your invitation. Now it is in your hand. Now you can be a part of the celebration; and it's all because someone took the time to give you an invitation.

Being a witness for Jesus is simply giving an invitation to someone who thought they had been left out. There is power in one.

*“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere”
(Acts 1:8 NLT).*
